	18.01.2007 Shri Ashok Kumar Shukla, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Parag Kotecha, P.L. for the State. Heard. By this petition the petitioner is seeking direction to the respondents to decide the appeal and representation preferred by the petitioner under the Right to Information Act. According to the counsel for the petitioner the appeal preferred by the petitioner has not been decided by the Chief Information Commissioner. I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner. I have perused the petition and the documents. From the documents annexed with the petition the petitioner could not demonstrate that he had preferred the application for the information as per rules of the concerned department and subsequently also preferred appeal under the Right to Information Act. In the circumstances the instant petition cannot be entertained and it is open to the petitioner to seek appropriate remedy before the concerned authorities under the Right to Information Act. In view of the above, the petition is dismissed. Sd/- Dhirendra Mishra Judge
